On the next page, please ensure to select the correct option. If you were not registered to play football last in Australian (no matter how long ago), you will need to apply for an international clearance, players are not eligible to play in any sanctioned game until this has been processed. If you have not played before select the appropriate choice.

You must have last been registered for an Australian Football Club (not futsal) to select Yes.

Click continue once you have made your selection.
